OPTIONAL INFORMATION

The Eugene City Council supports diversity and seeks to appoint persons who represent the diversity of the community. By providing the information below, you can help the City Council to know if the appointments match the diversity of the community. Applicants are considered without regard to race, sex, color, national origin, age, religion, marital status, medical condition, or disability. In some instances, however, appointment to certain boards/commissions may be based upon the need to fill specific positions on the board/commission.

1. What experience, training, and/or qualifications do you have for this particular board or commission?

2. What specific contribution do you hope to make to the board or commission? Why do you want to become a member?

NOTE: To allow a large number of citizens to serve on boards and commissions, the City Council policy allows individuals to serve on only one standing board or commission at a time. A current member of a board/commission who is a successful applicant for another board/commission will be required to choose between the two appointments. This policy does not apply to ad hoc committees or departmental committees or positions that are designated for members of specific advisory group (e.g. the Human Rights Commission member assigned to the Police Commission).

CITY COUNCIL POLICY REGARDING REAPPOINTMENT TO BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

1. Members of city advisory groups may serve a maximum of two consecutive terms when the length of the term is three years or more. Individuals serving terms less than three years will be limited to a total of six consecutive years of service.
2. The deadline for applications from incumbents is the same as the deadline for new applications.
3. An individual may reapply for appointment to a board or commission after at least a one year hiatus from service.
4. City of Eugene employees may not serve on City of Eugene boards or commissions except as specifically provided by the City Code, or as required to perform official duties.

Information submitted on this application is public information. The information provided herein is true and complete. A false or misleading statement may be cause for elimination from consideration.
